1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. Promotion of Access to Information

PAIA gives effect to Section 32 of the Constitution, which provides for the right of access to information held by another person that is required for the exercise and / or protection of any right.

PAIA seeks to promote a society in which you have access to information to enable you to exercise and protect your rights, and to promote a culture of transparency and accountability. Section 51 of PAIA requires all private bodies to compile a manual containing various information including:

- the company details
- a description of the records of the company
- means by which a record may be accessed.

The company is a private body and therefore this manual has been compiled in terms of and in order to comply with Section 51 of PAIA.

1.2. Protection of Personal Information

The purpose of POPI is to give effect to Section 14 of the Constitution, being the constitutional right to privacy by protecting Personal Information and regulating the processing of personal information.

1.3. Purpose of the Manual:

The purpose of this manual is to:

- aid in the access to information which is held by the Company and the related entities listed in Annexure B;
- to balance the constitutional right to the access of information with the right to privacy by protecting personal information;
- check the categories of records held by the Company which are available without a person having to submit a formal PAIA request;
- have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of the Company, by providing a description of the subjects on which the Company holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;
- know the description of the records of the Company which are available in accordance with any other legislation
- access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer who will assist the public with the records they intend to access;
- know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator and how to obtain access to it
- know if the Company will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- know the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
- know if the Company has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and
- know whether the Company has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

3. INFORMATION REGULATOR

The Information Regulator is an independent body established in terms of Section 39 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013.

The Information Regulator is empowered to monitor and enforce compliance by public and private bodies with the provisions of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act 2 of 2000), and the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (Act 4 of 2013).

The Information Regulator has compiled a PAIA guide. The purpose of the Guide is to provide information that is needed by any person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in the Promotion of Access to Information Act of 2000 (PAIA) and Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 ("POPIA").

The guide can be obtained by making a written request to the Information Officer or from the website of the Information Regulator (<https://info regulator.org.za/paia-guidelines/>).

A copy of the guide is available for public inspection during normal office hours in the following languages:

- English
- IsiZulu
- Afrikaans

7. HOW YOU CAN REQUEST ACCESS

To comply with our obligations in terms of PAIA the Company has authorised and designated an information officer to deal with all matters relating to PAIA and POPI. In order to request access to a record which is available upon request please complete the Request for Access Form which is available as Annexure A or at <https://inforegulator.org.za/paia-forms/> and submit it to the Company at its physical address, general contact email address or the Information Officer email address provided above.

Form of request:

- The requester must use the prescribed form to make the request for access to a record. This must be made to the Information Officer.

For your request to be considered please ensure that the completed form:

- Has sufficient detail on the request form to enable the Information Officer to identify the record which has been requested, the requester and the form of access you require.
- States your email address, postal address, and other relevant contact details and provides any other way that the requester would like to be informed of the decision relating to the request other than in writing.
- Identifies the right that is sought to be exercised or to be protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- The requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the head of the private body (If a request is made on behalf of another person)

Please note that recording a category or subject matter in this Manual does not imply that a request for access to such records would be honoured. All requests for access will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis in accordance with the provisions of PAIA and POPIA.

You will be notified in writing whether your request has been approved or denied within 30 calendar days after receipt by the company of the completed Request for Access Form. Should any record of the company requested by you not be found or not exist, the company will, notify you that it is not possible to give access to that particular record.

8. DECISION REGARDING REQUEST

PAIA provides for numerous grounds upon which the company may refuse to grant you access to a record of the company. These grounds for refusal are to protect –

The Privacy of Another Person

We may refuse to give you access to a record if access would unreasonably disclose a natural person's personal information, including a deceased person.

Access will not be refused in certain circumstances, such as follows:

- Consent has been obtained from the person who the information pertains to.
- The information is publicly available.
- The information belongs to a class of information, and the private body notified the individual upfront that the specific class of information might be made public.
- The record is physical or mental health information or information about someone's well-being who is:
  - under the requester's care and below 18 years, or
  - incapable of understanding the nature of the request and giving access would be in the individual's best interests.

- The information is about a deceased person and:
  - the requester is the next of kin, or
  - the request is made with the written consent of the individual's next of kin.
- The information is about a person who is, or was an executive at your organisation, and the information relates to their position or functions.

· Commercial Information of Another Company

Access to a record may be refused if the requested record contains:

- trade secrets of a third party,
- financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information and the disclosure could cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party,
- information and the disclosure could put the third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.

· Confidential Information of Another Person

Access to a requested record will be refused if its disclosure would constitute an action for breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement.

· The Safety of Individuals and Property

Access to a requested record may be refused if it could reasonably be expected to endanger an individual's life or physical safety. Access to a request may be refused if its disclosure would be likely to prejudice or impair the security of:

- a building, structure, or system, including a computer or communication system,
- a means of transport,
- any other property,
- methods, systems, plans or procedures for the protection of someone in a witness protection scheme,
- the public, or a part of the public, or
- the security of the property contemplated above.

· Records Privileged from Production in Legal Proceedings

Access to a requested record may be refused if the record is privileged from production in legal proceedings unless the person entitled to the privilege has waived the privilege.

· Research Information

Access to a requested record that contains research done by us or a third party may be refused if disclosing it would disclose our identity, the researcher's or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.

9. REMEDIES AVAILABLE IF REQUEST FOR INFORMATION IS REFUSED

Internal Remedies

The Company does not have internal appeal procedures. As such, the decision made by the information officer pertaining to a request is final, and requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if a request is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the response provided by the information officer.

External Remedies

A requestor that is dissatisfied with the information officer's refusal to disclose information, may:

- apply to a court with appropriate jurisdiction for relief within 180 days of us notifying you of our decision. For purposes of the Act, courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status.
- Submit a complaint to the Information Regulator by sending an email to:
PAIAComplaints@inforegulator.org.za

10. ACCESS TO RECORDS

---

If your request for access to records of the company is approved, access will be provided in the form as the company reasonable determines, unless you have requested access in a specific form.

11. FEES

A requester who seeks access to a record containing personal information about that requester is not required to pay the request fee. Every other requester, who is not a personal requester, must pay the required request fee as the law prescribes.

The prescribed fees must be paid before access to the record is granted. The Information Officer will provide the requester with the respective application process and applicable fees.

If the request is granted then a further access fee must be paid for the search, reproduction, and preparation and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure.

12. PROCESSING AND PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The company processes personal information of various categories of people and personal information is processed for various purposes. These are set out in the SAHL Privacy Policy which can be accessed as follows:

<https://www.sahomeloans.com/legal>

13. ACTUAL OR PLANNED TRANSBORDER FLOW OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Any transfer of personal information cross border shall be with the data subjects consent however should it not be reasonably practicable to obtain their consent we shall transfer the information should it be for the data subjects benefit and that the data subject would be likely to give consent should it have been reasonably practicable to obtain such consent.

We will ensure that anyone with whom we have an agreement for the storage and/or processing of Personal Information agrees to treat the Personal Information with the same level of protection as we are obliged to do.

14. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF INFORMATION SECURITY MEASURES

The Company take all reasonable precautions in line with generally accepted information security practices and makes use of up-to-date technology to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the Personal Information under its care.

Measures include:

- Firewalls
- Virus protection software and update protocols
- Logical and physical access control;
- Secure setup of hardware and software making up the IT infrastructure;
- Outsourced Service Providers who process Personal Information on behalf of the Company are contracted to implement security controls.
